

Sample interview questions ^{for} Sean Lambert

Founder & President of Homes of Hope International

Speaker

Trainer

Author

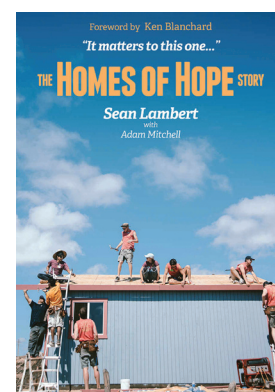

Over a quarter century of transforming lives for the poorest-of-the-poor in 23 countries...& counting

1. What sparked the idea for Homes of Hope?
2. How did you fund the first Home of Hope?
3. What was it like building your first Home of Hope?
4. How did the second house happen?
5. What happened then? Was it hard to get groups to come and build more houses?
6. How did you get so many business groups to come and build homes with you?
7. So what happens to these families after you leave?
8. I understand you've written a book about your experiences in building this international organization from scratch which includes a Foreword by NYT best-selling business author, Ken Blanchard -- where can people purchase that?
9. If people are interested in becoming a volunteer builder with Homes of Hope, where can they learn more?
10. If someone would like to support your mission but they aren't able to participate in-person, is there another way they can contribute?

If time permits: Where do you see the future of Homes of Hope going?

What other nations are you planning to build in?

Foreword by
New York Times
bestselling author
Ken Blanchard

The Home of Hope Story:
It Matters to This One

ISBN: 978-1576589922

Publisher: YWAM Publishing

176 pages · Hardcover

Retail: $23.99

ASIN: B06ZZK9NL1

Kindle · $9.99

Media Relations:

(Ms.) "Sam" Jernigan
Renaissance Consultations
sam@MarketingAndPR.com
cell: 530.362.1339 (PST)

www.TheHomesOfHopeStory.com